I acknowledge and accept that as a result of this increase in the daily Internet transfer limit (including Bpay), I will be increasing my liability to the amount specified below, for any loss of funds arising from any unauthorised transaction using my Internet Banking Logon.

I may be held liable for losses up to the daily transfer limit specified below, if the loss occurs before notification to the Bank that my Internet Banking details have been compromised or that my details have become known to someone else and if we prove, on the balance of probabilities, that you or any signatory on this account contributed to the loss. For further details, please see the Product Disclosure Statement available upon request.

I acknowledge that this limit may take up to 24 hours to be increased and that I will be advised when I am able to complete my transfer
